

record product news

i-record

FAQ 10/2021

Can tech support log into a techs device to provide support and take over i-record? Can the tech send information to tech support with the i-record APP?  Can you perform a reset on the controls with i-record? Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with i-record? Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with i-record? Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with i-record? Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with i-record? Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with i-record?  Ves- resetting a control to default settings or factory default setting is much easier no need for red flashes.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Ves- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning senso
Can the tech send information to tech support with the i-record APP?  Can you perform a reset on the controls with i-record?  Can you perform a reset on the controls with i-record?  Does i-record have an error history section like the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record apple i-pad or	Can tech support log into a techs device	Yes- by using the Team viewer Quick support APP on the support with the i-record APP?  Can you perform a reset on the controls with i-record?  Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with i-record?  Does i-record have an error history section like the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  How will I know when new software is available?  How do I receive the new software or any updates to my i-record APP?  What controls will i-record be compatible with?  Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  What is required to get registered for i-record APP?  What is a pool manager?  What is a pool manager?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will the FPC still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Information on the control and a video or picture of problem.  Yes- resetting a control to default settings or factory default settings or noted of the will all sure on to all sure or or.  Yes- and it will alls ogive you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will alls ogive you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will alls ogive you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will alls ogive you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will alls ogive you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it wi
Can you perform a reset on the controls with i-record?  Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with i-record?  Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with i-record?  Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with i-record?  Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with i-record?  Does i-record have an error history section like the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  How will I know when new software is available?  How do I receive the new software or any updates to my i-record APP?  Can you down grade software like we can with the FPC?  What controls will i-record be compatible with?  Will i-record support apple i-pad or i-phones?  Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will hee FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning accontrols with adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all twill also give you the error description along with scall salication on the home page service with the ard in and load new software with the terror.  Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- all twill also give you the error description along with the terror.  Yes- all runall also give you the error description along with the terror.  Yes- all runall also give you the error description and parameters of the error description along with the terror.  Yes- all runall also give you the error description and parismand in the per or find and load on ew software with the terror.  Yes- all runall also giv
Can you perform a reset on the controls with i-record?  Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with i-record?  Does i-record have an error history section like the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  How will I know when new software is available?  How do I receive the new software or any updates to my i-record APP?  What controls will i-record be compatible with?  Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will new software still be available?  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- at parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- at parameters can be adjusted and can perform learning sensors.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- all parameters co find and load new software with fewer steps than with the FPC wou will new software available.  You will need to connect to Wi-Fi the select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software.  Yes- by one version down from the curre	support with the i-record APP?	·
with i-record? Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with i-record? Does i-record have an error history section like the FPC? Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC? How will I know when new software is available? How do I receive the new software or any updates to my i-record APP? Can you down grade software like we can with i-record support apple i-pad or i-program the controls I'm working on? What is required to get registered for i-record? What is required to get registered for i-record APP? Are there fees with the i-record? Will hew a postware and the fee for the dongle and a recoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage. Will new software still be available for the FPC? Will the FPC still work for programing  Section passages and password and can perform learning sean basiques and basiques and pusculated and can perform learning learning seansors.  Yes- and it will alls ogive you the error description along with will will alls ogive you the error description along with till learning sensors.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with till learning sensors.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with till learning sensors.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description along with the feror.  Yes- and it will also give you the error description for that error.  Yes- it a much easier to find and load new software with fewer steps than with the FPC much more user friendly.  You will need to connect to Wi-Fi then select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software.  You will new software 2.0 and hi Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with i-record?  Does i-record have an error history section like the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record savailable?  Is is much easier to find and load new software with fewer steps than with the FPC much more user friendly.  Yes- this much easier to find and load new software with fewer steps than with the FPC much more user friendly.  You will have a notification on the home page service window in red letters on any new software available.  You will need to connect to Wi-Fi then select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes by one version down from the current software.  Yes by one version down from the current software.  Yes by one version down from the current software.  Yes by one version down from the cur
i-record?  Does i-record have an error history section like the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i-record than with the FPC much more user friendly. Yes- it is much easier to find and load new software with fewer steps than with the FPC much more user friendly. You will have a notification on the home page service window in red letters on any new software available. You will need to connect to Wi-Fi then select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software. Yes- by one version down from the current software. With server to receive the updates and new software.  Will i-record support apple i-pad or i-phones?  Will i-record support apple i-pad or i-phones?  Will need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  No- it is currently only compatible with certain android devices.  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle.  How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-question of the program the cord of the program the cord of the program of the progra	with i-record?
Does i-record have an error history section like the FPC?  With trouble shooting information for that error. Yes- it is much easier to find and load new software with record than with the FPC?  How will I know when new software is available?  You will have a notification on the home page service window in red letters on any new software available. How do I receive the new software or any updates to my i-record APP?  Can you down grade software like we can with the FPC?  What controls will i-record be compatible with?  Will i-record support apple i-pad or i-phones?  Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-terord APP?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record APP?  Will here fees with the i-record?  What needs to be done to setup the i-monthly fee for the membership usage.  Will the FPC still be available for the FPC?  Will new software sailer with i-record some fee for the dongle and bug fix packages available for the FPC?  Will new software still be available for the FPC still work for programing  Yes- and it will about to find load load so with for least to find and load new software with fewer steps than with the FPC much more user friendly.  Yes- it is much easier to find and load new software with fewer steps than with the FPC much more user friendly.  Yes will have u podate and bug fix packages available to find the program of the programing of the server.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from	Can the Ric 290 sensors be adjusted with	Yes- all parameters can be adjusted and can perform section like the FPC?  Is loading new software easier with i- record than with the FPC?  How will I know when new software or any updates to my i-record APP?  What controls l'm working on?  Will new dwill i-record?  What is required to get registered for i- record?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i- record APP?  What needs to be done to setup the i- record APP?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will new software sill be available for the FPC?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  with trouble shooting information for that error.  Yes- it is much easier to find and load new software with fewer steps than with the FPC much more software user friendly.  Yes- it is much easier to find and load new software with fewer steps than with the FPC much more software user friendly.  Yes- it is much easier to find and load new software with the FPC much more software user friendly.  Yes- it is much easier to find and load new software with the FPC much more user friendly.  You will have a notification on the home page service window in red letters on any new software user filedly.  You will need to connect to Wi-Fi the select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  No it is currently only compatible with certain android devices.  No- it is currently only compatible with certain android devices.  No- it cord uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle.  Vou will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you are at 0 uses you will need to
Is loading new software easier with i- record than with the FPC? How will I know when new software is available? How do I receive the new software or any updates to my i-record APP? What controls will i-record be compatible with? Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on? What is required to get registered for i- record? What is required to get registered for i- work and a pool manager? What needs to be done to setup the i- record APP?  What needs to be done to setup the i- record APP?  What needs to be available?  Will the FPC still be available for the FPC? Will the FPC still work for programing  Yes- it is much easier to find and load new software with fewer steps than with the FPC much more user friendly. You will have a notification on the home page service window in red letters on any new software available. You will have a notification on the home page service window in red letters on any new software available. You will need to connect to Wi-Fi then select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software. Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  It is compatible will all system 20 controls and all swing controls with software 2.0 and higher. No- it is currently only compatible with certain android devices.  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle.  Wow will need to create an account on the record-usa website.  What is required to get registered for i- there group of users (techs).  What needs to be done to setup the i- there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a recoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.	Does i-record have an error history	Yes- and it will also give you the error description along record than with the FPC? How will I know when new software is available? You will have a notification on the home page service window in red letters on any new software available. How do I receive the new software or any updates to my i-record APP? Can you down grade software like we can with the FPC? What controls will i-record be compatible with error aupport apple i-pad or i-phones? Will I red Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on? What is required to get registered for i-record? What is a pool manager? What needs to be done to setup the i-record APP?  Will the FPC still be available? Will new software still be available for the FPC? Will new software still be available for the FPC? Will the FPC still work for programing  You will have a notification on the home page service window in red letters on any new software available. You will have a notification on the home page service window in red letters on any new software available. You will have a notification on the home page service window in red letters on any new software available. You will need to connect to Wi-Fi then select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Ves- by one version down from the current software.  Vou will need to connect to Wi-Fi then select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software.  Ves- by one version down from the current software.  Ves- by one version down from the current software.  Vou will need to connect to Wi-Fi then select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software.  Ves- by one version down from the current software.  Ves- by one version down from the current software.  Ves- by one version down from the current software.  Ves- by one version down from the current software.  Ves- by one version down from the current software.  Ves- by one version down from the current software.  Ves- by one version down from the current software.	section like the FPC?	with trouble shooting information for that error.
How will I know when new software is available?  How do I receive the new software or any updates to my i-record APP?  Can you down grade software like we can with the FPC?  What controls will i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is a pool manager?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record APP?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  You will have a notification on the home page service window in red letters on any new software available.  You will need to connect to Wi-Fi then select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software.  You will need to connect to Wi-Fi then select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software.  Yes-by one version down from the current software.  Yes will all system 20 controls and all swing controls with software 2.0 and higher.  No- it is currently only compatible with certain android devices.  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android devices.  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for sommunication between your android devices and the dongle.  You will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next e	Is loading new software easier with i-	Yes- it is much easier to find and load new software with available?  How do I receive the new software or any updates to my i-record APP?  Can you down grade software like we can with the FPC?  What controls will i-record be compatible will all system 20 controls and all swing controls with software 2.0 and higher.  Will i-record support apple i-pad or i-phones?  Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will new software software or any will new software available.  You will need to connect to Wi-Fi then select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes will all system 20 controls and all swing controls with software 2.0 and higher.  No- it can deter so donnet software 2.0 and higher.  No- it can deter software 2.0 and higher.  No- it can deter software.  Vou will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you ware at 0 uses you will need to create an account on the record-	record than with the FPC?	fewer steps than with the FPC much more user friendly.
How do I receive the new software or any updates to my i-record APP?  Can you down grade software like we can with the FPC?  What controls will i-record be compatible with?  Will I-record support apple i-pad or i-phones?  Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software software or any with server to receive the updates and new software.  You will need to connect to Wi-Fi then select sync data with server to receive the updates and new software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  It is compatible will all system 20 controls and all swing controls with software 2.0 and higher.  No- it is currently only compatible with certain android devices.  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle.  Vou will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you are at 0 uses you will need to create an account on the record-use website.  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/	How will I know when new software is	You will have a notification on the home page service with server to receive the updates and new software.  Can you down grade software like we can with the FPC?  What controls will i-record be compatible with?  What controls will i-record be compatible with?  Will i-record support apple i-pad or i-phones?  Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record?  What is reference with the i-record?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  With server to receive the updates and new software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  Yes- by one version down from the current software.  It is compatible will all system 20 controls and all swing controls with software 2.0 and higher.  No- it is currently only compatible with certain android devices.  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle.  You will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you are at 0 uses you will need Wi-Fi and resync to get 50 more.  Users will need to create an account on the record-usa website.  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Will new software still be available for the through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing	available?	window in red letters on any new software available.
Can you down grade software like we can with the FPC?  What controls will i-record be compatible with?  What controls will i-record be compatible with?  What controls will i-record be compatible with?  Will i-record support apple i-pad or i-phones?  Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i-pecord APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  What is compatible will all system 20 controls and all swing controls with software 2.0 and higher.  No- it is currently only compatible with certain android devices.  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle.  You will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you are at 0 uses you will need Wi-Fi and resync to get 50 more.  Users will need to create an account on the record-usa website.  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  Will the FPC still be available?  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	How do I receive the new software or any	You will need to connect to Wi-Fi then select sync data with the FPC?  What controls will i-record be compatible with?  Will i-record support apple i-pad or i-phones?  Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i-peord APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new with software 2.0 and higher.  No- it is currently only compatible with certain android devices.  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle.  You will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you are at 0 uses you will need Wi-Fi and resync to get 50 more.  Users will need to create an account on the record-usa website.  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	updates to my i-record APP?	with server to receive the updates and new software.
with?  Will i-record support apple i-pad or i-phones?  Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new distriction and pool is controls with software 2.0 and higher.  No- it is currently only compatible with certain android devices.  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle.  Vou will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you are at 0 uses you will need Wi-Fi and resync to get 50 more.  Users will need to create an account on the record-usa website.  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no		Yes- by one version down from the current software.
with?  Will i-record support apple i-pad or i-phones?  Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new distriction and pool is controls with software 2.0 and higher.  No- it is currently only compatible with certain android devices.  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle.  Vou will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you are at 0 uses you will need Wi-Fi and resync to get 50 more.  Users will need to create an account on the record-usa website.  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no		It is compatible will all system 20 controls and all swing
Will i-record support apple i-pad or i- phones?  Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i- record?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i- record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle.  You will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you are at 0 uses you will need Wi-Fi and resync to get 50 more.  Users will need to create an account on the record-usa website.  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  Will the FPC still be available?  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no phones?  Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is a pool manager?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Mo- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the communication between your android device and the dongle.  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle.  You will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you are at 0 uses you will need to resynce you will need to create an account on the record-usa website.  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Will new software still be available for the through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	Will i-record support apple i-pad or i-Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to program the controls I'm working on?  How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle.  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle.  No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for communication between your android device and the dongle and the approximate to users you will need to reate an account on the record-usa website.  Users will need to create an account on the record-usa website.  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Will new software still be available for the Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no communication between your android device and the dongle.  How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is a pool manager?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i-record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Communication between your android device and the dongle.  Communication between your android device and the dongle.  Communication between your android device and the dongle.  You will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you are at 0 uses you will need to get 70 more.  Users will need to create an account on the record-usa website.  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Will new software still be available for the through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	Will I need Wi-Fi to use i-record to	No- i-record uses a dongle and blue tooth for
How many uses do you get with i-record?  What is required to get registered for i-record?  What is a pool manager?  What is a pool manager?  What is a pool manager?  What is edune to setup the i-record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Avou will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you are at 0 uses you will need Wi-Fi and resync to get 50 more.  Users will need to create an account on the record-usa website.  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	program the controls I'm working on?
are at 0 uses you will need Wi-Fi and resync to get 50 more.  What is required to get registered for i- record?  What is a pool manager?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i- record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Are at 0 uses you will need Wi-Fi and resync to get 50 more.  Users will need to create an account on the record-usa website.  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
are at 0 uses you will need Wi-Fi and resync to get 50 more.  What is required to get registered for i- record?  What is a pool manager?  What is a pool manager?  What needs to be done to setup the i- record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Are at 0 uses you will need Wi-Fi and resync to get 50 more.  Users will need to create an account on the record-usa website.  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	How many uses do you get with i-record?	You will get 50 uses after syncing to the server. Once you What is required to get registered for i- record?  What is a pool manager?  What is a pool manager?  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  What needs to be done to setup the i- record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	, , , record?  What is a pool manager?  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  What needs to be done to setup the irecord APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Website.  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no record?  What is a pool manager?  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  What needs to be done to setup the irecord APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Website.  Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in there group of users (techs).  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	What is required to get registered for i-	Users will need to create an account on the record-usa there group of users (techs).  What needs to be done to setup the irecord APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing		website.
What needs to be done to setup the i- record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	What is a pool manager?	Pool managers add and delete users and dongles with in What needs to be done to setup the i- record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  Once you down load the APP you will need to enter your username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no record APP?  Are there fees with the i-record?  Will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  username & password. Next enter your dongle number.  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	What needs to be done to setup the i-
Are there fees with the i-record?  There is a one-time fee for the dongle and a reoccurring monthly fee for the membership usage.  Will the FPC still be available?  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no will the FPC still be available?  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Will the FPC still work for programing  monthly fee for the membership usage.  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	Are there fees with the i-record?
Will the FPC still be available?  FPC is being phased out beginning 7/1/21. Consult factory regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no regarding any FPC-902 purchases after 7/1/21.  Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	Will the FPC still be available?
Will new software still be available for the FPC?  Yes will have update and bug fix packages available through the end of 2021.  Will the FPC still work for programing  Possible that parameter and function extensions can no
Will the FPC still work for programing Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	Will new software still be available for the
Will the FPC still work for programing Possible that parameter and function extensions can no	FPC?	through the end of 2021.
· • · · ·	Will the FPC still work for programing	Possible that parameter and function extensions can no controls?	longer be used with door systems after Q1 2021.

